

30th Sunday

I N O R D I N A R Y T I M E

"But the tax collector stood off at a distance and would not even raise his eyes to heaven but beat his breast and prayed, 'O God, be merciful to me a sinner.'" - Lk 18:13

Messages of Our Blessed Mother over the last several centuries have been consistent: Pray! Pray! Pray! Pope Saint John Paul II echoed this theme and expanded on it. He specifically and consistently encouraged praying for the Mercy of God on the whole world.

In his writings and homilies, he has described Divine Mercy as the answer to the world's problems and the message of the third millennium. He beatified and canonized Sr. Maria Faustina Kowalska, the nun associated with the message, and he did it in Rome and not in Poland to underscore that Divine Mercy is for the whole world.

On the immensity of God's mercy, St. Faustina records in her diary: "Today, I heard these words: The graces I grant you are not for you alone, but for a great number of other souls as well... And your heart is My constant dwelling place, despite the misery that you are. I unite Myself with you, take away your misery and give you My mercy. I perform works of mercy in every soul. The greater the sinner, the greater the right he has to My mercy. My mercy is confirmed in every work of My hands. He who trusts in My mercy will not perish, for all his affairs are Mine, and his enemies will be shattered at the base of My footstool."

One of the best means of assisting the dying is the one that Jesus revealed to St. Faustina and insisted that she use often, even continuously: The Chaplet of The Divine Mercy. Jesus said, "My daughter, encourage souls to say the chaplet which I have given to you. It pleases Me to grant everything they ask of Me by saying the chaplet. [And also] that when they say this chaplet in the presence of the dying, I will stand between My Father and the dying person, not as the just Judge but as the merciful Savior" (Diary, 1541).

Earlier, our Lord said to her, "At the hour of their death, I defend as My own glory every soul that will say this chaplet; or when others say it for a dying person, the indulgence is the same" (Diary, 811). Thus, pray for oneself as well as for others.

As a matter of fact, as an "extra-liturgical" form of intercessory prayer (that is, as a prayer that is recited outside of the context of the formal, liturgical prayers of the Church), it is almost always appropriate to use the Chaplet to pray for one's own needs, and those of others. It is appropriate because the Chaplet is a prayer of intercession made in union with the offering up of Christ's own Body and Blood, Soul and Divinity at every Eucharist. In other words, the Chaplet is like an extension of the intercessory prayers and supplications at the Mass, the Church's central and most powerful prayer of all.

This does not mean one is required to use the Chaplet when praying for others, of course. The tradition of the Church provides us with a variety of intercessory prayers to choose, including the Rosary, an array of litanies and novenas, and works of piety to which the Church has attached the promise of an indulgence that can be gained on behalf of the souls in purgatory. Also, we are free to spontaneously pour our hearts out to our Savior, and place into His hands all of our troubles and concerns - and especially the care of loved ones, both for their needs in this life, and for the life to come. For those who have died, above all we should have Masses offered for them, and pray for them at the Holy Eucharist ourselves, because the Eucharist is the great prayer that most intimately unites the Church in heaven, on earth, and in purgatory. As Catechism entry 1032 puts it: "From the beginning the Church has honored the memory of the dead and offered prayers in suffrage for them, above all the Eucharistic sacrifice, so that, thus purified, they may attain the beatific vision of God." [All of the above from various online sources]

Pamphlets for praying the Divine Mercy Chaplet as well as the Most Holy Rosary are available in our confessionals in the back of St. Lucy Church and in Gethsemane Chapel at St. Monica Church. Please ask during confession or help yourself if no one is available to help you.

2023 MASS BOOK OPENS NOVEMBER 1

COMING SOON. CHANGE TO SUNDAY MASS SCHEDULE!

Starting January 1, 2023, St. Monica's Sunday Masses will be 9:00am and 12:00pm. St. Lucy's Sunday Mass will be 10:30am.

This change comes at the advice of many in priestly ministry as well as the experience of a few instances this past year that left us scrambling to find priests to offer our regularly scheduled masses. The slight adjustments to our Sunday schedule now makes it possible for a single priest to cover all of the masses on a Sunday with the help of another priest on Saturday evenings. To be clear, we have received no indication that we are losing a priest or will be losing a priest to another assignment.

NEW MASS TIMES STARTING JANUARY 1, 2023

St. Monica Church: Saturday 4pm | 9am & 12pm

St. Lucy Church: Saturday 4pm | Sunday 10:30pm

Daily mass will remain the same.

DEALING WITH GRIEF DURING THE HOLIDAYS

Are you lonely and feeling sad facing the holidays without your loved one? A six-week bereavement support group will meet at St. Monica House on Tuesdays, November 8 - December 13 from 6-7:30pm. The group is offered as a free service to the community. Contact Christine at the Parish Offices to register, 978-683-1193.

Grief Counseling

Our parishes are collaborating with Mission Counseling, a Catholic Counseling Center, in Haverhill, MA to offer One-on-One Grief Counseling for parishioners who have had a loss of any kind and would like somebody to talk to. If you would like more information, please contact Christine in the parish offices, 978-686-3311.

Weekly Offertory needed to sustain parish operations: St. Monica - $10,000 | St. Lucy - $6,000

Thank you for your continued generous contribution to the mission of our parishes.

Family and friends of the Parishes of St. Monica and St. Lucy, As we prepare for our Thanksgiving offering to local families in need, we are facing challenges from food distribution resources that we normally utilize. As you know, supply chain issues and other contributing factors have caused food insecurities for many. Our Vincentian mission (and yours) is to be witnesses to the truth and the hope of our Catholic Christian worldview that can give meaning and purpose to life, despite hardships and adversities. We are requesting your support for the following items which will be supplemented by gift cards for our friends in need to purchase Turkeys if they so desire. Please consider donating stuffing, gravy, cranberry sauce, instant mashed potatoes, canned vegetables, quick bread, or cake mixes. You are in our prayers as we offer this thought: "Eucharisteo" is the Greek word for Thanksgiving. We are all Brothers and Sisters at the Table of Thanksgiving.

PENITENTIAL ACT - GLORIA*Refer to Pew CardFIRST READING

Sir 35: 12-14, 16-18

The LORD is a God of justice, / who knows no favorites. / Though not unduly partial toward the weak, / yet he hears the cry of the oppressed. / The Lord is not deaf to the wail of the orphan, / nor to the widow when she pours out her complaint. / The one who serves God willingly is heard; / his petition reaches the heavens. / The prayer of the lowly pierces the clouds; / it does not rest till it reaches its goal, / nor will it withdraw till the Most High responds, / judges justly and affirms the right, / and the Lord will not delay.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM

Ps 34 (33): 7a; ¶ 2-3, 17-18, 19, 23 · L

℞. The Lord hears the cry of the poor.

*I will bless the LORD at all times;
his praise shall be ever in my mouth.
Let my soul glory in the LORD;
the lowly will hear me and be glad.*

*The LORD confronts the evildoers,
to destroy remembrance of them from the earth.
When the just cry out, the Lord hears them,
and from all their distress he rescues them.*

*The LORD is close to the brokenhearted;
and those who are crushed in spirit he saves.
The LORD redeems the lives of his servants;
no one incurs guilt who takes refuge in him.*

SECOND READING*2 Tim 4: 6-8, 16-18*

Beloved: I am already being poured out like a libation, and the time of my departure is at hand. I have competed well; I have finished the race; I have kept the faith. From now on the crown of righteousness awaits me, which the Lord, the just judge, will award to me on that day, and not only to me, but to all who have longed for his appearance. At my first defense no one appeared on my behalf, but everyone deserted me. May it not be held against them! But the Lord stood by me and gave me strength, so that through me the proclamation might be completed and all the Gentiles might hear it. And I was rescued from the lion's mouth. The Lord will rescue me from every evil threat and will bring me safe to his heavenly kingdom. To him be glory forever and ever. Amen.

ALLELUIA*2 Cor 5: 19 · L*

∇ God was reconciling the world to himself in Christ, and entrusting to us the message of salvation.

GOSPEL*Lk 18: 9-14*

Jesus addressed this parable to those who were convinced of their own righteousness and despised everyone else. “Two people went up to the temple area to pray; one was a Pharisee and the other was a tax collector. The Pharisee took up his position and spoke this prayer to himself, ‘O God, I thank you that I am not like the rest of humanity—greedy, dishonest, adulterous—or even like this tax collector. I fast twice a week, and I pay tithes on my whole income.’ But the tax collector stood off at a distance and would not even raise his eyes to heaven but beat his breast and prayed, ‘O God, be merciful to me a sinner.’ I tell you, the latter went home justified, not the former; for whoever exalts himself will be humbled, and the one who humbles himself will be exalted.”

COMMUNION ANTIPHON*Eph 5: 2*

Christ loved us and gave himself up for us, as a fragrant offering to God.

PRAYER FOR PASTORAL PLANNING

Almighty Father, give us the grace to follow where your Son leads.

Make our priests holy and effective ministers of the Gospel.

Make our staff and parishioners dedicated and enthusiastic disciples.

May we all be docile to the Holy Spirit and obedient to your will.

Help us make our parishes a light for those seeking you

And a safe harbor for those who hope in you.

We entrust ourselves to the Blessed Virgin Mary as we pray: Hail Mary, full of grace...
