SHARE THE NATIVITY... This year during Advent and leading up to Christmas, we would like to place on display different nativity scenes. The size doesn't matter and pictures or banners are also welcome. All items will be returned after the holidays. The scenes will be displayed in the lower church hall and will be available for viewing from now through January 8th. If you would like to have your nativity scene displayed here at St. Lucy, please drop it off at the office during the week or give it to one of the ushers before Mass. Please use the form below so that we have your contact info so each display can be returned. Let's truly celebrate together the "Reason for the Season" and begin a new tradition here at St. Lucy. EVENTS

St. Lucy/St. Monica Ultreya

Wednesday, November 30, 2016

7:00 PM – 8:30 PM

St. Lucy's Church Hall

All St. Lucy and St. Monica parishioners are invited to take part in a monthly Ultreya. This Spanish word means "Onward!" "Persevere!" "Hang in There!" Words of encouragement to each other as we travel on life's journey.

Ultreya this month will begin with Liturgy and includes voluntary sharing in small intimate and confidential groups, fellowship and refreshments that signify Christian hospitality.

Our guest speaker, one of our own St. Monica parishioners, Mary Ann Boucher, has been invited to offer a personal witness of what life was like before Cursillo and how it is now after the Cursillo experience. Come support our dear friend!

All parishioners are invited to come and share in this monthly evening of praise and worship. Please feel free to invite a friend to join you!

A Special Thanks

My sincere appreciation for all of those who have contributed to the building project of St. Sharbel in Raleigh, North Carolina. Your kind and generous donations have reached over $3,000.

I hope everyone had a wonderful Thanksgiving! It's hard for me to believe that we have once again reached the beginning of a new year in the Church. This Sunday is the first Sunday of Advent, which means that it is once again time to prepare for the coming of Our Lord. It is important that we make a conscious effort to prepare ourselves, even while we perform that extremely important civic duty: Christmas shopping.

It is a pity that the world views Christmas primarily as a shopping season that ends the day after Christmas. This view may cause one to miss out on undertaking a prayerful preparation for what is coming.

What are we preparing for? Of course, the answer is Jesus. We prepare for his coming by heeding the message of repentance preached by all of the prophets, most eloquently proclaimed by John the Baptist. We prepare most obviously to celebrate again the first coming of Jesus in the manger in Bethlehem. As astounded as we are at the Lord's resurrection, is it not more astounding that the Son of God, through Whom all things were made, saw fit to become one of us, his lowly creatures, strictly out of love? No one could have ever made up something that is so outlandish, but God's love is completely beyond our understanding. It is altogether fitting that we celebrate Christmas with great joy.

During Advent, we also prepare for the second coming of Christ. He will come again at the end of time. This time, he will not come as a helpless baby, but will be on the throne of judgment. No one will be able to deny His majesty, or escape His justice. Every wrong that has ever been committed will be set right. All the dead will see their souls reunited with their bodies. We do not know when this will happen, but does it not provide a sense of urgency as we strive for holiness in our lives?

St. Bernard of Clairvaux speaks to us of a third coming of Christ. This coming of the Lord is different from the other two in that it is invisible, but it may be the most important in the everyday life of the Christian. This is the coming of the Lord into the hearts of those who are in the state of grace. Jesus says: "If a man loves me, he will keep my words: and my Father will love him, and we will come unto him, and make our abode with him." (John 14:23) Jesus promises to truly dwell in those with a living faith in him. This is a gift that can't be bought, so let us get to confession so that we may all obtain what Jesus is dying to give us.
