COLLABORATIVE NEWS & EVENTS

In our bulletin last week, we neglected to acknowledge Caroline Glynn in the list of members of the finance council. We apologize for the mistake and thank you to all the council members for all the work you do.

Imagine for a moment that we are living in Jesus' time and He has invited us to visit with Him and spend some quiet time getting to know Him better. Being aware who He was, we would be humbled and honored by such an invitation. The good news is that Jesus is here with us TODAY - body, blood, soul and divinity". - Mother Teresa's Reflection/St. Daniels Church

Program for Adults desiring to receive the Sacraments

Sessions are being offered for adults interested in our Catholic faith and in becoming a member of the Catholic Church through the Sacraments of Baptism, Holy Communion and Confirmation, a program commonly known as RCIA. Anyone interested in receiving any or all of these sacraments, which they may have not received in their youth, are encouraged and welcomed to attend. If YOU know of anyone interested, please let them know and we will gladly welcome them and explain the process offered. Also, these sessions are open to anyone who has received their Sacraments but might want to come to a deeper appreciation of what these Sacraments are about. You too are welcome to join in a very interesting and relaxed atmosphere. Any questions please contact Kevin Fitzgerald, at 978-686-3311 or Bonnie Bonanno at 978-609-7307.

Our next meeting is next Sunday, October 22nd at 10:00 am in the St. Lucy schoolhouse.

Please do not leave lit candles in the churches. We found one recently at St. Monica's that could have caused a fire. Thank you for your understanding.

The Archdiocese of Boston is working to encourage all parishes in the Archdiocese to participate in Formed.org which is also known as the Catholic Netflix. Formed.org offers much in the area of Programs, Studies, Audios, and eBooks. (Also, once you download an eBook, it is yours to keep, even after the free offer ends!) The Archdiocese is working with Formed.org to offer free access to all of their material until October 27 so please take a look at this wealth of Catholic information before the offer ends. You can watch Formed.org on your desktop computer or on a mobile device using the Formed app if you have an iPhone or iPad. (There is currently no Android app.) If anyone has any questions, they can contact Bonnie Doherty at 978-270-3366 or bonnieocds@gmail.com. This week we celebrate

October 15 - St. Teresa of Jesus

"Everything we gain comes from what we give."

October 16 - Saint Margaret Mary Alacoque

"Keep your heart in peace and let nothing trouble you, not even your faults. You must humble yourself and amend them peacefully, without being discouraged or cast down, for God's dwelling is in peace."

October 17 - St. Ignatius of Antioch

"I prefer death in Christ Jesus to power over the farthest limits of the earth. He who died in place of us is the one object of my quest. He who rose for our sakes is my one desire."

October 18 - St. Luke

"Remember the past, plan for the future, but live for today, because yesterday is gone and tomorrow may never come."

"And so I tell you, keep on asking, and you will receive what you ask for. Keep on seeking, and you will find. Keep on knocking, and the door will be opened to you. For everyone who asks, receives. Everyone who seeks, finds. And to everyone who knocks, the door will be opened."

October 19 - Sts. John de Brébeuf and Isaac Jogues and Companions

Father, you consecrated the first beginnings of the faith in North America by the preaching and martyrdom of Saints John and Isaac and their companions. By the help of their prayers may the Christian faith continue to grow throughout the world. We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.
Amen.

October 20 - St. Paul of the Cross

"Let us live, then, absorbed in the thought and the desire of that immense ocean of felicity which we are to enjoy in heaven."

The Second Mass of the School Year

Sincere thank you to all who attended and participated. Our choir sang beautifully, the altar servers did a wonderful job, and of course we thank all those who read, presented the gifts, and assisted our younger students so they could participate as well.

The Grand Annual - an important part of balancing our budget

This week you will be receiving a letter from me regarding the Grand Annual Collection taken up each year to make sure that we can balance our annual budget. This collection is necessary to supplement the shortfalls in the weekly offertory. Both parishes have been very faithful in their participation each year. We hope that our weekly offertory will improve and are undertaking a separate initiative this fall to strengthen the offertory. Our hope over time, is that the Grand Annual could in the future be used for special projects like property improvements. For the short term the Grand Annual is a critical piece of the operating budget. We are hoping to raise $80,000 at St. Monica Parish and $60,000 at St. Lucy Parish, the St. Monica figure is higher because it is a larger parish.

No pastor likes asking for money. For the vast majority of us it is one of the least pleasant tasks of being a pastor. We know that what we spend our money on reflects what we value. There is a lot of truth in the phrase "voting with your dollar". Each check we write or item we buy is at the expense of something else we don't choose. My hope is that by participating generously we are saying to God and to each other that we value St. Monica and St. Lucy Parishes very much. I know that it may be difficult to give but I also know that every time we do it in a sacrificial way God repays us often in ways that undoubtedly he uses to remind us of His generosity. I gave away two tickets for the Red Sox for the last game of the season to a family that I know would appreciate them. It was the little boy's very first Red Sox game. On Columbus Day weekend I was home celebrating my niece's wedding and on Monday morning my brother-in-law was given an extra ticket to the playoff game at Fenway and offered it to me. As I sat in the seat near where I would have been just days prior, I couldn't help but think God rewarded me because I gave something I valued away. God is never outdone in generosity, He knows what we need and simply asks that we trust him with everything, including our finances.

Every meal I take in the rectory with the priests I always pray for those who have prepared it at all levels of production and for those who have provided it, and that is each and everyone of you. Please know my thanks for all you do for our parishes, but more so know that God is thankful.

COLLABORATIVE NEWS & EVENTS

Please pray for Peter DeFrancesco, Diana Laroche, Virginia Buckley, Marcelle Shripsa, Robert Talbot Sr., Leo Seman, and Collette Donahue whose Funeral Masses were recently celebrated at our parishes. May their soul and the souls of all our faithful departed rest in peace.

Seventeenth Annual Project Warm & Fuzzy

Ashley Bolis, a resident of the Merrimack Valley and a Corpus Christi parishioner is continuing a project which she started as a student at St. Monica's Grammar School. The project is called "Warm & Fuzzy". There will be boxes at the entrances of the Church where you may drop off new hats, mittens, gloves, scarves and socks (for children, babies and adults) until November 19th (the Sunday before Thanksgiving). These articles will be distributed to the needy during the winter months. Any help you can give Ashley with her project will be greatly appreciated.
