The 100th anniversary of St Monica Parish

It's hard to believe that as of this weekend, we are half way through our 100th anniversary year at St. Monica Parish. We had a great celebration as our Cardinal Archbishop Sean O'Malley joined us for mass two weeks ago. Considering it was Fathers' Day and many had to travel to commemorate that important day, we had a respectable turnout at the Mass. It was beautiful to witness Cardinal O'Malley's dedication to his people. I was sitting near him and perhaps had a clearer view than many. When he rose from the chair for the offertory it took him three tries, rocking back and forth to stand up and his face showed clear signs of pain in standing. His homily was beautiful and he spoke so eloquently of Christ giving himself to us as food. He reminded us that in loving we give of ourselves to God and others totally just as Christ comes to us humbly as food. I think we would all agree that in his coming to us just a few days after surgery on his knee, he put his words into practice right before our eyes. Though we clearly would have been disappointed if he cancelled, we would have understood his need for rest. As I write these words on the feast of Sts. Peter and Paul, June 29th, it's his birthday. We should all offer a prayer for him and the folks at St Monica a special prayer of thanksgiving for his visit.

The next big event will be our dinner dance at Lenzi's in Dracut on Saturday, October 28th. We have sold about half of the tickets, 150 out of 300. I sincerely hope that we will be able to sell the others. The tickets are only $50. The planning committee has worked hard at getting the word out and making themselves available after mass to sell tickets. Please plan on coming and make that commitment now. I know that there can be a very human tendency not to commit early to things, but this is an important event in the life of St. Monica and is a great way to spend time with one another. We very intentionally kept the prices as low as we could so that as many could afford to come as possible. This is not a fundraiser, it is a purely a get together. Attending the dinner is an important way that we honor one another, that we show our connections to one another as a parish family are valued. For information on buying tickets please call 978-794-8681.

To the St. Lucy parishioners I ask that you give prayerful consideration to attending the dinner as well. As we build more and more ties between our two parishes it's a beautiful way to express our solidarity as Catholics in Methuen. Remember, though its not as monumental a number as 100, next year we will be celebrating the 60th anniversary of the founding of St Lucy Parish and I am hopeful that at that time the parishioners of St. Monica will approach that anniversary with a spirit of brother and sisterly love as well.

I remember when Mel King, an African-American, ran for mayor of Boston back in 1983 he had a catchy quote to try to bridge the racial gap very prevalent in the life of the city and its politics. He said, "We may have come on different ships, but we're all in the same boat now." At St. Lucy and St. Monica we are on two distinct ships, but we share the same harbor and the same waters. A rising tide raises all ships. Lets sail together!

Peace,

Fr. Bill
